DCR TO REOPEN CAPE COD RAIL TRAIL Cleanup and repaving completed following oil spill

WHAT: The Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR) is reopening the southern end of the Cape Cod Rail Trail, which had been closed for several days following a nearby oil spill in Harwich. Crews have completed clean-up and repaving work in the affected section of the trail. The trail will now be open its entire 22-mile length, from Dennis to Wellfleet.

WHEN: Saturday morning
May 24, 2008

WHERE: The 3.5-mile stretch of the Rail Trail between the Route 134 trailhead in Dennis and the bicycle rotary in Harwich.
